WHAT WE DO IN LIFE ECHOES IN ETERNITY

WELCOME

A NEW CHALLENGE CONTINUES

Welcome to the official matchday programme for our second League Eight fixture of the season.

This morning, we face Haydons Park for the first competitive meeting between our two clubs. We extend a warm welcome to their players, management team, supporters and everyone reading or following the game from elsewhere.

Last Sunday morning, we began our League Eight campaign with a hard-earned 2-1 victory over Three Little Birds. It was not a comfortable performance, but we never expected life at this level to be easy. Just over a year ago, this squad was preparing for its first season together in League Ten. Now, following a perfect league campaign and a two-division rise, every match presents a different challenge and every point must be earned.

Whether you are with us at Snakey Lane, following the result from elsewhere or reading this programme to learn more about the club and our journey, thank you for supporting Sue's Angels FC.

We hope you enjoy the programme and today's game.

The Sue's Angels FC squad and staff.

SUE'S ANGELS

2-1

THREE LITTLE BIRDS

Jon Lloyd finishes Charlie Dunkley's lay-off to open the League Eight account.

The League Eight campaign began with a hard-fought win: three formations, two excellent goals and three points on the board.

Three Little Birds started strongly and pushed the Angels back early. Luke Munns was busy from the start and made eight saves across the match, several of them in a difficult opening spell.

When Andrew Allen pulled up with a hamstring injury, Stephen Potter came on at left back and the side moved from 4-1-3-2 to 4-2-3-1. The extra body in midfield changed the game.

The breakthrough came from Leon Burnett's hold-up play. He released Charlie Dunkley inside the box, and instead of shooting Dunkley laid the ball across for Jon Lloyd, who finished with real class.

Five minutes later Dunkley doubled the lead, taking Jon Lloyd's pass around 30 yards out and striking it right-footed past the goalkeeper. An early contender for Goal of the Season.

The Angels held 2-0 to half time. With 11 minutes left a corner went straight in to give the visitors hope, and the Angels switched to a 5-3-2 to see it out.

Not the best performance, and Three Little Birds deserve credit for pushing to the end. But opening days are about points, and the Angels found a way to win.

Charlie Dunkley's strike from around 30 yards makes it 2-0.

IN TOWN TODAY

WELCOME, HAYDONS PARK

Haydons Park arrive at The Reeves Sports Club for Sue's Angels' second League Eight fixture of the season and the first competitive meeting between the two clubs.

Established in 2010 and based in South-West London, Haydons Park are an experienced Sunday-league side with a long-standing core of players. Before entering the Southern Sunday Football League, the club competed in the Leatherhead and District Sunday Football League.

The visitors spent last season in League Nine, finishing sixth with 22 points from 18 matches. They recorded six victories and four draws while scoring 44 league goals.

Haydons Park showed their attacking threat all season. Their victories included a 5-1 win over TSM Rovers, a 5-0 success against ACT Arantes United and a 7-1 victory over Bristol City (London) Supporters. They twice scored five away from home, winning 5-3 at both Barnes Stormers and Larkhall City.

Several experienced members of last season's squad remain with the club for 2026/27. Ryan Blackwood returns after scoring eight goals last season, while Riley Jackson-Hughes contributed five and Frankie Brawn scored four. Isaiah Stewart also recorded three goals from only four appearances.

Justin Morgan was the club's most-used player last season, making 20 appearances, while Keenan Rochester made 19. Aaron McNamara, James Binfield, Michael Bonsu Michaels and Barnaby De Hoedt have also been with the club for several seasons.

Haydons Park begin their 2026/27 campaign at The Reeves, meaning Sue's Angels will be their first competitive opponents of the new season.

We extend a warm welcome to the players, management and supporters of Haydons Park and hope everyone enjoys today's League Eight fixture.
